Are YOU ready to use your business skills to create social change?

White Box Enterprises (WBE) are passionate about supporting a new generation of leaders who want to create system change through social enterprise. This inaugural WBE Future Social Entrepreneur Fellowship is open to applicants who can demonstrate a genuine desire to build a career in social enterprise or social enterprise management, particularly in the employment sector.

Whether you are making the leap from corporate, a recent graduate, or returning to the workforce, this fellowship is designed to encourage and enable your passion for using business as the vehicle to create jobs and empowerment for young disadvantaged people.

Does this sound like you? Apply now.

What's on offer?

- $10,000 towards a professional development experience of your choice
- 12 Monthly mentoring sessions with White Box executives
- $5,000 discovery capital towards the launch of a social enterprise project (if the project relates to youth unemployment and is based on a clearly identified market gap)
- The opportunity to become part of the White Box team post completion
